

RIGHTS OF THE RESPONDING INDIVIDUAL

- To meet with the Title IX Coordinator who can explain your rights, resources (i.e. counseling, medical services, legal/advocacy & support), evidence preservation, the difference between criminal and institutional process and more.
- To be treated with respect by College administrators, faculty, and staff.
- To be fully informed of the nature, rules and procedures of the campus conduct or Title IX process and to timely written notice of all alleged violations within the complaint including the nature of the violation.
- To have College policies and procedures followed.
- To request an advocate for support & assistance during the campus investigation process.
- To request academic support from your classes where practicable (including additional support, extensions, course withdrawals, etc)
- To raise any concerns regarding bias or conflict of interest with any member of the investigation/adjudication process.
- To a campus conduct/Title IX outcome based solely on evidence presented during the process. Such evidence shall be credible, relevant, based in fact, and without prejudice or bias.
- To written notice of the outcome and sanction of the investigation.
- To appeal the outcome and/or sanction at the conclusion of the investigation, in accordance with the standards for appeal establishes by the institution.
- To be protected against retaliation.