

First-time, Full-time Retention Rates First Year Cohorts 2014-2022

Full-time, first-time degree-seeking undergraduates who return and are enrolled the subsequent fall semester. Data collected from Title IV postsecondary institutions. National data source: NCES Trend Generator (<https://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/TrendGenerator/app/answer/7/32>). Because retention rates are calculated from fall semester to fall semester at 1 year after entry, Fall 2023 is the most recent term for which retention rates can be calculated.

National data for Fall 2023 are not yet available. Last updated 3/13/25.
